Park City Mountain Bike Fast Facts and 2016 Pricing

Park City Mountain Biking:

- Park City is the first International Mountain Bicycling Association (IMBA) gold-level Ride Center in the world
- There are more than 400 miles of mountain bike and hiking singletrack in Park City
- Jans, White Pine Touring, and Cole Sport all provide full-service bike shops that offer road and mountain bike repairs, rentals, and retail goods
- White Pine Touring offers weekly, free guided group rides for all ages and abilities including a women's only ride with the members of Team Sugar
- Lift-served mountain biking is available at Deer Valley Resort, Park City Base, and Canyons Village

Deer Valley Resort:

- Deer Valley offers 40 maintained trails totaling nearly 70 miles that interconnect with numerous other trails that leave the resort
- Lift-served access is available across three peaks: Bald Eagle, Bald, and Flagstaff
- Non-lift-served access is available at three additional peaks: Little Baldy, Empire, and Lady Morgan
- Deer Valley operates three high-speed quads during the summer: Silver Lake Express, accessed via Snowpark; Sterling Express, accessed via Silver Lake; and Ruby Express out of Empire Canyon
- The vertical drop of Deer Valley's lift-served trail system is 2,200 feet
- Trail levels: 5.9% beginner, 41.1% intermediate, 41.2% advanced, 11.8% expert
- PressCamp is held at Deer Valley Resort each summer
- Deer Valley offers Mountain Bike School for riders of all ages and abilities

Park City Base:

- Park City Base Area has more than 70 miles of biking trails that serve all ability levels
- Crescent Lift drops mountain bikers off at an elevation of nearly 9,000 feet and provides quick and easy access to Park City's upper terrain.

Canyons Village:

- Canyons Village operates Utah's only lift-served gravity mountain bike park with flow trails and both dirt and man-made features
- The bike park offers lessons exclusively by instructors certified as Professional Mountain Bike Instructors (PMBI)
- Three lifts access the bike park: Red Pine Gondola, High Meadow and Short Cut
- Mountain bikers can take the gondola up to access cross-country trails

- Canyons offers Mountain Bike 101 and 201 clinics to help riders hone their skills in the bike park. They also offer guided cross-county tours and private clinics
